

WHAT JEWETT SAYS

Great Tribute to the Memory of John T. Hessel

BY HIS OLD EMPLOYER

Honest, Trustworthy, a Man of Fearless Integrity.

John T. Hessel, candidate for county commissioner in the third district, is now making his canvass. Everywhere he goes he makes friends, and for a very simple reason. The reason this time Mr. Hessel is not a politician, but he is a business farmer. Put him in a bank, in the management of a store or the superintendency of a foundry or a farm, and he would be the same level-headed man. He talks from the shoulder, says what he means, means what he says. The average man who meets him knows that an honest commissioner would be a business from beginning to end; that he would bring to bear on all public matters the executive ability he has given to the management of his own affairs.

He knows little of politics or the ways of politicians. But just now the citizens of that district want a little more business in their representative in county affairs and a little less politics.

If there is a man in the world who is in a position to speak of the qualifications of John Hessel, he is Henry C. Jewett. In a letter to the editor of the Eagle from Aurora, New York, Mr. Jewett writes thus:

Dear Sir: "Noticing that John T. Hessel has been nominated for commissioner in the third district, I would like very much to give my testimony, as he held a position of great responsibility and trust as manager of my farm near Aurora, Kansas, for two years and was superintendent of my farm long before going to Kansas, for say five years. He was always the right man in the right place; competent, honest and trustworthy, and a man of fearless integrity, one who would command attention and respect from all. It is a pleasure to me to give the above evidence, as he is worthy of it. His father was one of the same kind of men—his son in John T. Hessel. He inherits the above traits and cannot do otherwise. Mr. Hessel is one of the kind that should be sought without a second thought."

THIS LETTER WAS NOT ADULTERATED. It came from a man who knows John T. Hessel, knows him to be honest, competent, trustworthy.

"He is always the right man in the right place."

PUT IN A NEW WIRE.

Rock Island Service Demands One At Once.

Mr. Combs of the Rock Island was rejoicing over the arrival of the overhauling of the telegraph lines on that road yesterday, as they will make a force of linemen work at work putting in a new line from Harrison to Chickasha. The work on the lines now in operation is so heavy that it is almost impossible to keep up with the business. There is not so much business but that the operators could keep up with it if they had lines enough to carry the message. The new line will relieve the pressure on the Topeka lines and will, in fact, reduce that line to a minimum amount of work. The lines under the present system are so crowded that an operator has to sit at his instrument all of the time ready to seize the line at any time and answer it as soon as there is a break.

Used by people of refinement for over a quarter of a century.

In the use of the line. Even then, he has to scrap for the use of the line by showing that his messages are of vital importance. This has caused a great deal of hardship among the operators and the new line is hailed with joy, as it means that an operator can send his work when it should be sent and not be under the necessity of sitting at the machine all day watching every break in the sending of messages. The new line will be completed in a very few days.

BICYCLE ON FIRE. All Kinds of Excitement on North Main Street Yesterday.

There was all kinds of excitement on North Main street yesterday afternoon. Some of the messenger boys obtained a quantity of paper used in decorations during street fair week and decorated their wheels. One of the lads put his wheel in the rack in front of the Kansas News stand and went inside for a few moments. Some one came along and apparently wanted to light his cigar and struck the match and either some part of the first went into the wheel or the man, carelessly threw the lighted match into the wheel. Anyhow, suddenly the wheel was on fire and the cry was sent along the street. The paper made a good blaze, but one of the men in the news stand ran out with a bucket of water and put the fire out, but not until the decorations were destroyed.

MARRIED AT ENID. Wichita Young Man Obtains a Bride There.

Perry Glaze, a former Wichita boy, was married last Monday to a young lady at Enid, O. T. Mr. Glaze lived in this city a number of years and has a host of friends here. He worked in several of the stores in this city. The Enid Wave contains the following account of the wedding.

"Monday, October 21, at 8 o'clock, at the pleasant home of Judge Eastman, on North Grand avenue, Barrister Perry Glaze and Miss Sadie E. Alger were made husband and wife, in the presence of a small circle of friends. The Hon. John L. McAtee, judge of the district court, officiated.

"While the marriage was confidently expected by the close friends of both the contracting parties, as they had been quite 'chummy' for several years, and everybody knows the result in such cases. After the ceremony and congratulations, Mr. and Mrs. Glaze repaired to their own home, already prepared for their reception, on the corner of Main and Fifteenth streets, west, where they will make their home for the present.

"The groom of this happy mating is, perhaps, one of the best known young men of this county, being one of the pioneer settlers of this city, besides he has been active in the profession of politics. He was the chairman of the Democratic county central committee for two years and was a prominent candidate for a delegate to the last national Democratic convention. Mr. Glaze was unfortunate in losing both his parents when quite young, hence it can be truthfully said that he raised himself and made himself a self-reliant, energetic and ambitious man. He is the son of a farmer and has an overhauling of his first break in the world in doing for himself was in selling newspapers on the streets of Denver, Colo., when he was but a mere boy, a long way from home and relatives. As a general, whole-souled, prospective citizen of Enid, Mr. Glaze needs no introduction from the Wave; those who know him well are his friends, and they are many. The Wave believes he will make a dutiful husband, obeying Mrs. Glaze in every particular.

"The bride, Miss Sadie Alger, was raised in McPherson, Kan., and sprung from one of the best families of that neighborhood. She has been employed in the dry goods department of Kennedy Brothers for over a year past, and has made friends of all the ladies of the city, among whom she was quite a favorite behind the counter. She is a very agreeable and pleasant-mannered young lady, fully worthy of the notorious husband she has sought, whether he is worthy of her or not.

"The Wave joins in the congratulations, wishing Mr. and Mrs. Glaze many happy, prosperous days of married life."
